BRITISH TRADE IN CHINA.

INTERNATIONAL RIVALRY.

Mr. Acting Consul General Playfair's Report on the trade of Hankow for the year 1903—as unusually prompt and informative document —contains some interesting remarks on the rivalry to which British trade is now subject in the Far East. We quote the following passages:—

"British trade in China, that is to say, trade conducted not only in British goods, but by British hands, has undergone a transformation.
The change has been gradual, and has extended over many years. The majority of those engaged in it have found it difficult to adapt themselves to the new methods which they will have to follow if they wish to maintain their grasp and not see their livelihood slip away from them. The metamorphosis is not in the British trader himself, but in those with whom the trade is conducted—viz., the Chinese; and unless the British merchant recognizes facts and can accommodate himself to the novel conditions, he will find himself supplanted by those who are more pliant and adaptable. The United Kingdom has taken a large and laudable share in promoting the education of the Chinese.
We have preached to them and exhorted them and entreated them to adopt larger views, and to assimilate the wisdom and superior methods of the West. We have impressed on them that they are really ignorant people, and that they cannot possibly move forward unless they model themselves on European lines. Tacitly and meekly they have recognized this. Silently they have avowed their own shortcomings. So unosten-tantly and in that so skilfully, has the transformation been effected that in many ways they have turned the tables on us, and we have been blind to the fact. Their education has been so complete and their adaptability so thorough which we formerly occupied unquestioned the volume of British trade is not here spoken of; that continues to increase yearly, and no doubt will go on doing so as long as we have something to sell which the native of China wishes to buy or the converse. British trade, in the abstract, still flourishes, and may indeed be said to flourish exceedingly, but, in the concrete, its profits are no longer distributed in the same direction, nor do they benefit the same persons. The trade of China is like the Egyptian Nile. In the old days, in making its way to the sea it overflowed and enriched with fertiliz-ing alluvium the regions through which it passed. We have, with the best of motives, canalised it, so that it enters the sea in even greater volume, but it no longer enriches all and sundry who tarry on its banks. They await in vain the lavish overflow to which they were accustomed. The stream has so narrowed and conserved that, unless they are wise enough to make use of the hundred and one irrigation channels into which its waters have been diverted, they find at last that its benefits are no longer for the first comer as they used to be, and that its profits are much harder to come by. There was a time when the British merchant had very few rivals in the field.
Now he has many, and some are of his own making. His European competitors are yearly becoming more numerous and more formidable. They came in flatteringly imitation of himself, and at first 'sat at the feet of Gamaliel,' but have by this time learned all there was to learn, and have in many ways bettered his instruction. His best resource is now to sit at the feet of his quondam pupils, and learn, like them, to pick up the crumbs that fall from the table.

Except in shipping and banking, commerce, with a big 'C,' has passed out of his hands, and nothing seems left him but trade with a small 't.' Though British shipping has yearly increased in tonnage and, during the current year, also in percentage, the number of British firms of repute doing business as merchants either in imports or exports is falling off, and those still here find it daily harder to compete with their foreign rivals. When first British merchants established themselves at Hankow they confined themselves to the tea trade, of which Hankow was then the centre, and treated it entirely in the hands of French and German firms who got hold of the connections which they still retain. The Han-ow tea trade, being being wounded to the death, as far as the United Kingdom was concerned by the pushing firms of India and Ceylon, and having consequently fallen almost entirely into Russian hands, British merchants found it increasingly difficult to do any business, the more so as the Chinese merchants began to purchase their imports at Shanghai and Hongkong, instead of through the agency of the local firms. The British, since their Concession adjoins the native city, hold the most advantageous position on the river, yet as soon as the Pei-Han Railway is in full working order, the centre of trade may be expected to gravitate towards the French Concession, immediately behind which is the railway station, and to the German Concession, through which a branch line of the railway is to be carried down to the water's edge. The Germans and, to a certain extent, the Belgians seem to have secured for themselves all the Chinese Government contracts for machinery of every description, the local arsenal, ironworks and mint being fitted out with their manufactures.
The Japanese are to provide rifles for the Chinese troops, as rifles of Japanese make are both cheaper and more effective than those that have hitherto been supplied by German firms. The blame for the lack of success of British firms in these, as in other branches of trade, though commonly ascribed to the superstition of the Chinese, would seem to lie in reality with the firms themselves who make no serious effort to push their goods in opposition to those of other countries. At the most they send a price list to the local Consular representative with a request that he will hand it on to some local agent; but they overlook the fact that the Chinese Government prefers to deal direct with the manufacturers, and that the local firms have no facilities for bringing their goods to the direct notice of the authorities. The only effectual method is to send accredited agents with full particulars to the officials in charge of factories in order to expound the advantages of British-made machinery, or to native merchants in order to point out the superiority of the article, which they are trying to sell, and to secure orders therefor."

THE MYSTERY OF THE FLYING EAR.

"About eight years ago," said Mr. Laverack, as he pushed aside his plate from the well-spread table, "I was at Ousefleet, Scotland, five miles from home, for some shooting with a friend, with little idea that this day's sport was to bring me an adventure which it would take five years to see the end of."

"We were walking side by side across the stubble, looking for rabbits, when my companion, thinking he saw something move, fired into a thicket of wheat. At the same moment I felt a sudden shock over my right temple."

"I called out 'I am shot!'" "My friend turned at my shout. We could not see what had injured me; yet something had struck me; and on looking at my head we found that an ear of wheat, scattered by the shot, had flown backward in some mysterious way, and embedded itself deeply in the skin of my forehead."

"With my pocket knife I cut out the hard grain and thought no more of the matter. But as the wound healed, a kind of scurf spread from it all over my face. A little thing may lead to a deal of trouble; and this trouble was vexed with her for, as I thought, throwing good money after bad, and she persuaded me to take them."

"You see it isn't a faith-cure! I expected nothing. But before I had finished the first bottle the stinging and burning of the face had grown very much less, and as the pills, not being a purgative, but a strengthening remedy, are quite safe to use regularly, I went on with them, taking a dose after every meal. I grew steadily better in my general health, my appetite and my spirits, as well as in the skin. But the most obvious effect was in the last, and I am most willing that the case should be published in the newspapers and made as widely known as possible, because I want to recommend Dr.
Williams' pink pills as the most valuable medicine and tonic ever discovered. Day by day my blood grew purer. The sores healed, and new skin, clear and healthy as the skin of a child, formed on my face, and all my trouble disappeared."

"Of course, Mr. Laverack, whose intelligent features show no sign of his late trouble, puts the whole matter in a nutshell when he says:

"I called out 'I am shot!'" My friend, turned."

on for years, gradually getting worse and worse.
It was only a year ago that I found the way out of it—thanks to a newspaper article about Dr.
Williams' pink pills, and before them I believe I should be suffering still. At times the pain all over my face was unbearable. The first doctor who saw me attributed the diseased state of the skin to eczema, but before long I found I was also suffering from chronic erysipelas.
My face took on all sorts of colours. Sometimes it was red as blood; once it became nearly black. Nothing that I could do or take seemed to clear it, and I didn't care for anyone to see it, not even my own relations.
"Nor was this all. The skin always burned and stung, and a change of the weather always affected it. After a touch of cold, pieces of skin as thick as a penny-piece would peel off my face, until I couldn't bear anything to touch it.
The very pillow of my bed hurt me, and I hardly knew what it was to have a decent night's rest. It seemed as if the disease would spread all over me, and I dreaded to take off my clothes. Work was as great a misery as rest. I had no taste for food. I didn't care for exercise or business."

"The escape was nearly as unforeseen as the accident. I had begun to regard myself as disfigured for life, when one day my wife brought home from the market two little jars in a high-street druggist's box. 'Good!' something wrapped up in a piece of newspaper. By a strange coincidence, an article printed in that scrap of the 'Globe' newspaper happened to describe how Dr. Williams' pink pills for pale people had cured a very severe case of skin disease. I had taken so many different things without the least effect that I had quite lost my faith in medicine; but my wife bought a bottle of Dr. Williams' pink pills (though I was "Day by day my blood grew purer." This is no doubt that the eczema and chronic erysipelas from which he suffered for so long, and with apparently no little hope, arose from blood poisoning set on foot by the accident of the flying ear of wheat, and the reason that the medicines he tried did him no good was that ordinary medicine does not go to the root of the disease.

Dr. Williams' pink pills have the property of enriching and purifying blood. In fact, they actually make new blood, and it is by this means that they have quickly cured many cases of skin disease, scrofula, anaemia, consumption, kidney ailment, gout, and the many other troublesome diseases which result from poor or impure blood, when ordinary medicine has been tried with no effect. The genuine pills bear the full name, Dr. Williams' pink pills for pale people, and may be safely bought (if you take care to see the whole seven words on the wrapper) at medicine shops. Dr. Williams' medicine company, Holborn-viaduct, London, will send a bottle post free for two shillings and ninepence, or six for thirteen and ninepence.
Rheumatism is another disease of which impure blood is the real cause, though many people suppose it to arise from 'cold or damp.' Dr.
Williams' pink pills cure more cases of rheumatism than anything else except antiseptic and diuretic which often afflict ladies of all ages. For bile, indigestion, nervous headaches and neuritis they are marvellous. Mr.
Joseph Henry Laverack, who told the above striking and intelligent story, counts as one of the happier chances of his life the coincidence which led him to read the scrap of paper from the 'Globe' which told him of the cure of a man whose case was, as he truly says, that was an accident not less remarkable than the one which led to so much trouble—the Adventure of the Flying Ear of wheat."

THE America Maru, which recently resumed her place on the Toyo Kisen Kaisha's Trans-

THE "PRACAS" ON THE CANTON RAILWAY.

STATEMENT BY THE U.S. CONSUL.

that the engineer, employed on the Canton-Hankow Railway, who, the other day, unintentionally shot a Chinese youth during the attack made on the residence of the European Staff at Sainan by a mob of natives, had fled to Hongkong and that his arrest had been requested by wire. On inquiry being made by us to-day at the U.S. Consulate, our representative was courteously informed by Consul General E. S. Pragg that the whole affair was a mistake, and that the engineer in question was actually sitting talking to that functionary in his office when the news was received that his arrest had been requested by some overzealous Chinese official. This gentleman had come over to Hongkong to transact private business, and as soon as this news was communicated to him, returned to Canton. This gentleman, it was stated, was Consul Pragg informed by the whole business must soon probably be satisfactorily settled.

THE S.S. "CHARLES HARDOUN"

IN A RAIN STORM.

Having spent a most enjoyable day in Macao after a delightful trip over on the s.s.
Charles Hardoun, nearly a hundred and fifty visitors from Hongkong again boarded the steamer last evening, and shortly before 8.15 commenced the homeward journey. Heavy clouds had gathered since dusk, and by the time the steamer rounded Barra Fort, at the entrance to the Inner Harbour rain was beginning to fall. The wind rose almost immediately afterwards, and as the steamer gained the open sea and the lights of Macao dipped below the horizon it had increased to gale force. Capt. Merlin kept her on her course in the teeth of the wind, and as she pounded ahead heavy seas swept away from her bows in shavings of glimmering light. The water was full of phosphorus and far out in the blackness of the night the blue crested waves could be seen to break. It was a pretty sight, and as the awnings had not been removed the rain caused no inconvenience to passengers many of whom lounged in easy chairs and thoroughly enjoyed the storm. Throughout the trip the steamer remained perfectly steady and gave ample proof of her seagoing qualities. Hongkong was reached at 11.45 p.m. and everyone expressed the pleasure which they had derived from the outing.

We understand that Messrs. J. Trevoux & Co., who are represented locally by Mr. J.
Landell, intend making the same trip the next few Sundays, and as the festival of St. Anthony is being celebrated at Macao, on the 19th inst., there should be a large party aboard on the next visit to the Portuguese Colony.

THE NEW GOVERNOR.

Among the list of passengers leaving London, for Hongkong on the 24th inst., on the P. & O. s.s. Moldavia, connecting with the s.s. Simba at Colombo, are the names of Major Sir Mathew Nathan, K.C.M.G., and Lady Nathan.

LITIGANT'S IMPROPER CONDUCT

TOWARDS THE CHIEF JUSTICE.

At the Supreme Court this morning, a Parsee, named Vania, applied to the Chief Justice for a summons for embezzlement and also for $5,000 damages against two persons.

Sir William Goodman said he had no power to issue summonses against anybody, and subsequently stated:—If other litigants acted as you have chosen to act, it would be impossible for the administration of justice in this Colony to be properly carried on. You have written letters to me both at my chambers and my private house, with reference to matters you have already litigated, or are litigating or desire to litigate. In any case your conduct is highly improper, and I must put a stop to it, unless, indeed, your own sense of what is right and decorous leads you to conduct yourself with propriety in future. I will point out what has occurred so that you may understand your position. It seems that a Parsee merchant named Ratanjee Cursetjee Vania, whom I understand to have been your uncle, died here, about 28th June, 1899. His widow, who was in India, sent a Power of Attorney to Mr. Arjane and yourself to enable you jointly and severally to take out administration of her deceased husband's estate for her use and benefit. This Power of Attorney was dated 29th May, 1899. Mr. Arjane did not use the Power, but you availed yourself of it and, in September, 1899, you obtained Letters of Administration. You swore the value of the estate to be $6,000, and alleged the debts to amount to $18,000; but as only debts due to persons resident in the Colony (which amounted to $4,048.43) can be deducted for probate duty, such duty was paid upon the sum of $2,251.57. You had some difficulty about obtaining a surety, but eventually Swabjee Byrajjee Bhabha became your surety, on condition that the books and papers connected with the estate were lodged with Mr. Arjane to whom, with yourself, the Power of Attorney had been sent; you having all proper access to the estate for the purpose of winding up the estate, an arrangement to which you assented. On 22nd March, 1902, you duly filed your account of the estate and of your administration, in your own handwriting, and you declared to its correctness in the usual form, and one would be supposed the matter was concluded. More than two years elapsed and then, on May 7th, 1902, you brought an action against Mr. Arjane claiming the return of certain books and papers belonging to the estate, or, in the alternative, $5,000, by way of damages. On 9th July, 1902, the widow revoked her previous Power of Attorney to you and Arjane, and gave a fresh one to Burjorjee Nowrojee Futakia, who filed a petition for administration. Consideration of this petition was adjourned, pending the hearing of the action I have mentioned. That action was heard on 26th June, 1903, by me.
You appeared in person and Mr. Slade appeared for the defendant, Mr. Arjane. It seemed a satisfactory solution that all the books and papers should be sent to the widow in India, so that she could take advice and see whether she was satisfied with what had been done. At the trial, that was the arrangement come to, by consent of both parties, and the following order to which you consented in open Court was made:—"That the books, etc., mentioned in the claim and all books, correspondence, etc., belonging to the estate of the deceased R. C.
Vania be handed to the Registrar of the Court and be forwarded by him to the Registrar of the High Court in Bombay for the widow of the deceased, at the expense of the parties. Each party to pay his own costs." The Registrar informs me that Mr. Arjane kept faith by duly bringing in to the Registry the books and papers in his possession accompanied by a list thereof, and that they were forwarded to the Registrar of the High Court in Bombay, on 3rd July, 1903, where acknowledgment reached here on the 15th August, 1903, accompanied by a receipt for the same by the widow. You, however, did not keep faith with the Court. Months went by without your sending any of the books and papers in your possession relating to the estate, into the Registry, and it was not until the 4th of May, 1904, that you brought in a box of papers with a list which contained a lot of comments and statements in red ink.

Your one-sided comments were not required, but only the documents and a simple list, and accordingly, you were requested to remove them and return them with a simple list, a draft form of which the Registrar, Mr. Seth, kindly provided you with. The next day you returned to the Registry an informed the Registrar that you declined to give up the books and papers in question. So the widow, for whose use and benefit the grant of Administration was made to you, has never received those books and papers. On 5th December, 1903, you brought an action against Mr. Arjane and Mr. Bhabha, claiming $5,000, the value of landed property situated in Shamesen, and shares in Public Companies alleged to belong to the estate of the deceased (Vanias) and you applied to issue a concurrent writ against Bhabha and asked me for leave to serve it in Bombay. I have no jurisdiction

The Congo Free State.

LONDON, 10th June.

Speaking on the Foreign Office vote, Sir Charles Dilke in the House of Commons lengthily impeached the administration of the Congo Free State and several members demanded that an international conference should be summoned. Earl Percy said that while Italy, the United States and Turkey stated they were earnestly considering our representations, the other Powers were not prepared to act.

The War.

The English Red Cross Society has sent £2,000 for the Russian sick and wounded. Reuter's correspondent at Mukden confirms that General Kuroki has begun a forward movement in force; and the Russians officially admit that they are falling back before a superior force.

Armenia.

Both Great Britain and France have made strong representations to the Porte against the recent "dragonnings" of Armenians in the district of Sassun.

Contraband of War.

11th June.

Great Britain has protested against the Russian declaration that rice and food stuffs are contraband of war.

The Tibet Expedition.

The Tibetans have made night attacks on the Sikh and Gorkha outposts at Gyantse and were repulsed. Nearly all the reinforcements have reached Chumbi.

AUSTRALIA IN THE ORIENT.

A recent issue of Public Opinion, one of the most conservative papers in England, urges the British investor to give the new Labour Ministry of the Australian Commonwealth every consideration and a fair trial. It states that it is in a position to positively assert that Mr. Chamberlain's policy will receive early deliberation from the new Cabinet which is prepared to join with New Zealand in openly fighting for preferential trade. This endorsement would of course materially assist the crusade at the approaching British general election.

We do not know if the sudden activity of Australia in sending commercial representatives to test and gauge the Eastern markets is a foreshadowing of coming events. It may be only a coincidence, but it is a pertinent one. This we do know, that if the United States adopt the policy advocated, and virtually promised in high quarters, of closing all trade in the Philippines unless carried in American bottoms, that Australia will immediately retaliate. And the Australian parliaments have a habit of hitting quickly without consulting the home authorities.

Mr. Frederic Jones, the North Pacific Trade Commissioner to the Queensland Government, leaves on Tuesday by the Messageries liner for Singapore, and expects to return to Hongkong before two months. He has made important engagements subject to ratification by his Government. Mr. Jones expresses complete satisfaction as to the result of his visit and is confident that in a great many branches of trade that the products of Queensland can more than hold their own without Government assistance.

THE BAY OF BENGAL.

Probably very few people think very much of the bottom of the Bay of Bengal, whilst those who have to travel over it especially in the South-West Monsoon are considerably exercised over its surface, its condition meaning for them a comfortable or uncomfortable journey. In recent times the Bay of Bengal has been particularly well studied, and it has been ascertained that its bottom is a vast plain, nearly a thousand miles in extent in its greatest breadth, broken only by one long narrow mountain chain which at certain places rises above the sea, and forms the Andaman Islands. The bottom of the sea is entirely screened from the warmth and light of the sun by the intervening mass of water. On land we often experience that the intervention of clouds, which are merely divided masses of water, results in gloom and a fall of temperature. The effect is infinitely more intense at the bottom of the ocean, between which and the sun there is interposed not only for a day or two, a layer of cloud, but, over a volume of water often several miles thick. Even at fifteen fathoms from the surface the light is much subdued, producing more the appearance of pale moonlight than of sunlight. Experiments made with very sensitive photographic plates in the clear water of the Lake of Geneva, have shown that sunlight does not penetrate to a greater depth than 150 fathoms. In the open ocean and in the tropics where sunlight is most intense, no light penetrates beyond a depth of 200 fathoms. Below this all is dark. The sun's heat like its light is cut off from the ocean depths in the same manner. In the Bay of Bengal there is a fall of temperature amounting to about 1° Fahr. for every ten fathoms from the surface. At 200 fathoms it has been found that the thermometer stands all the year round at 55 degrees Fahr. Whilst at 2,000 fathoms it constantly registers about 35° Fahr. or about three above freezing point. It is curious to note that as we rise in the air in balloons or on mountain tops the temperature falls as we rise, and the same occurs as we dive into the depths of the ocean. But in mines the heat increases as we descend. Plant life appears entirely absent on the floor of the deep seas, but dredgings in the past twenty-five years show that these cold dark depths really teem with animal life. For the above interesting particulars, we are indebted to an article on "Life in the Depths of the Ocean" by Dr. Philip, which appeared in Chambers Journal some time ago.

THE WAR.

RUSSIAN LOSSES AT NANSHAN.

Mr. M. Noma, Consul for Japan, kindly communicates the following official telegram:—

Tokio, 12th June, 12.25 p.m.

General Oku reports that Russian corpses have been found in the vicinity of Nanshan and carefully buried by the Japanese Military Administration Commission and gendarmes.

The number was 10 officers, and 664 men, besides about 30 buried by Japanese troops in the neighbourhood of the camps.

RUSSIAN MOVING SOUTH.

THE DEFENCE OF LIAOYANG.

POLICING CAPTURED TOWNS.

Newchwang, 1st June.

I learn from reliable sources that a strong Russian force is being hurriedly concentrated in the vicinity of Kaichow. The first brigade of the first division, under the command of General Slachuberg, arrived at Kaichow from Tashichow on the 29th ultimo, accompanied by a battery of artillery and a large number of Cossacks, totalling 12,300 men of all arms. It is further reported that another brigade is following for the relief of the Russians in the south. The latter troops will probably be despatched to Wofunkien, where, it is stated, five days' severe fighting ending on the 30th ultimo, occurred.

Trains are now running from Tashichow to Kaichow; yesterday two trainloads of wounded Russians passed through on the way to Mukden and during the same day 3,000 commissariat carts, containing straw and munitions of war, were seen to leave Tashichow and proceed in the direction of Kaichow. It is estimated that between 15,000 and 20,000 troops have been entrained from the north en route to the latter place during the past three days. Yesterday 23 hospital nurses arrived at Tashichow from Moukden, also proceeding to the same destination. It would appear that the Russians either intend making their next big stand at Kaichow, or are making it their base of operations against the Japanese in the Liaoting Peninsula.

A PIGEON POST MESSAGE FROM

PORT ARTHUR.

Chefoo, 4th June.

On the 3rd instant while the Norwegian s.s. Skeim was lying at anchor here in Chefoo a pigeon alighted on board, and was caught. The captain, on examining the bird, found two letters in Russian characters in cipher, tied to the legs, and as soon as these missives were removed the bird flew away. Next morning, the 4th, the captain sent the letter over to the Russian consulate, which paid him $10. On the Chefoo Daily News representatives afterwards interviewing the Russian Consul on the subject, that gentleman denied the incident. The letters must have come from Port Arthur.—Universal Gazette.

CORRESPONDENTS "AT THE FRONT."

Chefoo, 5th June.

The foreign newspaper correspondents attached to the Russian army had already received passports from Viceroy Alexieff to proceed to Liaoyang, but when they reached Changchintien and Yentai stations, they were told not to proceed any further, according to orders of the head-quarters of the Russian Commander-in-Chief, as their presence would only hinder the Russian military plans.—Sin Wan-pao.

I am informed from Russian sources that General Meschenko has despatched 4,000 Imperial cavalry guards from Kuanchengt to Kaiyuan en route for the south, where they are to be employed for the purpose of cutting off Japanese troops at Pitsuwao.

To-day a Chinaman arrived here from Pitsuwao, bringing a letter from an officer attached to the 5th division stationed at Lenchiatuen—situated half way between Pitsuwao and Pulantien—stating that the Japanese are busily engaged fighting towards the east of Port Arthur.

Great preparations have been made for the defence of Liaoyang, which is considered to be one of the strongest strategic positions held by the Russians. It is reported that during the past five days 4,000 carts have been employed by the Russians to remove stores and munitions from Liaoyang to Kaiyang—probably surplus stores which it is thought desirable to remove beyond the reach of the Japanese in the event of the latter capturing Liaoyang.

It is stated in well informed quarters that complications may arise in connection with the policing of treaty ports and the various Manchurian towns captured by the Japanese. The latter are not in a position to spare sufficient men to properly guard and police these places against the depredations of robbers and bad characters who would speedily take advantage of any town or district left without proper protection. It is reported that in order to overcome this difficulty the Japanese are negotiating for the Chinese Government to provide troops for the purpose of policing districts evacuated by the Russians. It is further stated that M. Lessar, the Russian Foreign Minister to Peking, is bringing pressure to bear upon the Chinese Government to prevent the latter from interfering in the matter.

At Newchwang all is quiet; during the last few days several ladies have returned, an indication that hostilities are not likely to take place in the neighbourhood of Newchwang just yet awhile.—Shanghai Mercury.

THE NEW MILITARY PROGRAMME.

Tokio, 4th June.

The report that General Kuropatkin is ready to assume the offensive is believed at Tokio to be well founded.

This will undoubtedly advance the military situation; both sides having then to fight in undefended positions.

It is said that Russia originally hoped to hold Nanshan (Kincho) for six months, and Port Arthur for two years, but the splendid Japanese victory at Nanshan seems to have entirely changed the Russian scheme; and viewed from this standpoint, it may be said to have been cheaply bought with 4,000 casualties.—N. C. D. News.

Vice-Admirals Tozō and Yamamoto have been promoted to Admirals; Lieut. Generals Okawara, Hasegawa, Nishi, Kodama and Nogi to Generals; Rear-Admirals Uriu, Saitou and Dewa to Vice-Admirals.

THE COWEN CASE.

DECISION.

Judgment was given on the 3rd inst. at H. B. M. Supreme Court, Shanghai, before Sir H. S. Wilkinson, in the matter of proceedings against John Cowen, Editor of the China Times, under Article 106 of the Order in Council 1865, on report and appeal from his Britannic Majesty's Court at Tientsin.

The judgment was an extremely lengthy one, of which the following is a summary, from the Shanghai Times.

In this case an Order of deportation has been made by His Majesty's Court at Tientsin and it has been reported to the Chief Justice of this Court under the first part of Article 106 of the same order, which provides that "A Provincial Court shall forthwith report to the Judge of the Supreme Court any order of deportations made by it and the grounds thereof."

The first part of Article 106 under which the order of deportation was made is as follows:—

(1) "When it is shown on oath, to the satisfaction of any of Her Majesty's Courts in China that there is reasonable ground to apprehend that any British Subject in China is about to commit a breach of the public peace—or that the acts or conduct of any British Subject in China are or is likely to produce or excite to a breach of the public peace—the court within the jurisdiction whereof he happens to be may cause him to be brought before it and require him to give security to the satisfaction of the Court, to keep the peace or for his future good behaviour, as the case may require."

The subject of the order of deportation is, as stated in the report, Mr. John Cowen, a British subject, resident with his family at Tientsin, and general manager and publisher of a local newspaper called the China Times and the act complained of is the publication in that paper on the 22nd of February last of a certain paragraph in an article headed "The French Journal on the War," such publication being stated to be an act not likely to produce or excite to a breach of the public peace especially in view of the presence of troops of various nationalities in Tientsin, the complaint being made on oath by Captain Edward H. E. Daniel who holds the position of Deputy Assistant Adjutant General in the North China Command.

A summons was issued on this complaint, and the defendant attended the Court at Tientsin, on the 29th of February accompanied by his Counsel. The Judge having attentively heard the argument of the defendant's Counsel gave his decision requiring the defendant to enter into a recognisance in the sum of $500 to be of good behaviour for 12 months and gave him 24 hours to decide whether he would do so or not, and the defendant having then declined to enter into such a recognisance, the Judge made the order for deportation with a view to confirmation or reversal.

The Judge, as directed by the order in Council, has stated the grounds for requiring security from the defendant. He said:—"My grounds for requiring Mr. Cowen to give the above mentioned security by signing a recognisance are these:—The Article complained of is, in my opinion, of a nature to provoke or excite to a breach of public peace. While such writing as this and some others lately printed in the China Times would not, if published in Great Britain or in British Colony, be dangerous, it assumes a very different complexion when published in what is practically an International Garrison Town, where feelings are already excited, where in the natural course of events and with the progress of a war new perhaps only at its earliest stage, those feelings must tend to become more and more embittered and where in my own experience during the past three years, the community has more than once been on the verge of the most serious occurrences due to national antipathies. On these considerations my action has been based."

Counsel for the defendant at the suggestion of the Judge of the Court at Tientsin put into writing his argument on behalf of the defendant, and a copy of this argument accompanied the report. A supplementary argument on behalf of the defendant has since been forwarded through that Court. The defendant has in his argument raised certain points of law, and these have first to be considered. A copy of the arguments has been served on the complainant, but he has intimated that he does not propose to file any argument in reply and both complainant and defendant have intimated that they do not propose to be represented by Counsel in this Court.

The argument of defendant's Counsel may be stated shortly as directed to show—1st.—That the provisions of the Order in Council under which these proceedings are taken are unconstitutional and void.

2nd.—That the provisions of the order do not apply to the facts of the present case.

3rd.—That if the provisions of the Order do apply in the present case, they ought under all the circumstances not to be applied.

Counsel's argument at Tientsin was quoted at great length in its main points after reading which His Lordship delivered himself as follows:—

If then I had to treat this case as one on appeal from the Court below on the legal points which have been raised I should feel that I had no alternative but to confirm the decision. But I conceive that my duty does not end there. The provision which requires me either to confirm the order for deportation or to reverse it leaves me a discretion, which it is my duty to exercise.

The object of the article is prevention and not punishment and I am able in considering the matter to do so in the light of events subsequent to the time when the decision was given in the Court below. But it is desirable that there should be no misconception on this point. It was argued on behalf of the defendant that the charge came on to be heard 4 days after the words complained of were published and as up to that time there had been no breach of the peace in consequence no order for security ought to be made. This argument is ridiculous in itself and specially in view of the cases in which security has been ordered at home and the times which have elapsed between acts or threats and the making of the orders. And not even the much longer time which has elapsed since the publication and the present, added to the fact, as I am glad to learn it is a fact, that there has been no breach of the peace in consequence, would be sufficient in itself to justify the reversal of the order. But Counsel on behalf of the defendant gave an assurance with regard to the matters complained of which if carried out would secure all that the order was intended to secure, and I have since had an opportunity of conferring with the Judge of the Court at Tientsin, and I learn from him that the assurance has so far been carried out, and he has no reason to think that it will not continue to be carried out. Under these circumstances I am glad to feel at liberty to reverse, and I now do reverse, the order for deportation. But this reversal is not to be construed as in any way dissenting from the propriety of the institution of the proceedings or of the making of the order.

SOME DETAILS ABOUT THE DEATH OF MR. ETZEL.

A local native paper publishes the following telegram from Tientsin concerning the death of the late Mr. Etzel:—Mr. Brindle (Daily Mail) and the late Mr. Etzel (Daily Telegraph) jointly hired a junk, hitherto engaged in the bean-carrying trade, on Sunday, 5th inst., and had started down the Shuangt'ai river bound for Kaichow. At 6 o'clock on the afternoon of the 6th inst. (Monday) the junk was sailing some ten miles out on the open sea when it met four other junks having on board some thirty Chinese soldiers. The four junks at once started to surround the bean junk and although the Chinese crew on board called out with might and main that their junk was a peaceable one their cries were unheeded and soon a fusillade began from the rifles of the soldiers. At that moment Mr. Brindle was inside the cabin of the junk and escaped being 'shot at,' but Mr. Etzel happened at the time to be standing right in view of the other junks and so got killed by a rifle ball, as also was a native belonging to the crew. The Chinese soldiers fired in all about one hundred shots, mistaking the bean junk for a piratical craft. But when Mr. Brindle brought out his passport and waved it towards the other junks, firing at once ceased and the four junks sailed off immediately. The corpse of Mr. Etzel was taken to Newchwang, where Mr. Miller, the U. S. Consul there, held an inquest.

THE LATE MR. SOPER.

The Echo de Chine's Chefoo correspondent writes on the 1st of June that Mr. Soper was drowned on the way to Weihaiwei. There had been suspicions of those who were with him on his yacht, but these suspicions were dissipated when it was found that these men had not enough on them to pay their passage from Weihaiwei to Chefoo. The correspondent adds that a number of Sikhs, now in Chefoo, formerly employed at Dalny, had entrusted their savings to Mr. Soper, and are accordingly in despair. It is possible that Capt. Bennett misunderstood the Indian who spoke to him at Chefoo, and that the latter was really asking if the former knew where Mr. Soper was to be found. We learnt yesterday that one of the two Russians who accompanied Mr. Soper on the voyage has arrived in Shanghai. He states that Mr. Soper was struck by the boom while steering, fell overboard, and never rose again. The Russian in question held a position of some responsibility as an Engineer in Port Arthur and there seems to be no reason to disbelieve this account of a very sad affair. It is supposed that Mr. Soper had a considerable sum of his own money and of money entrusted to him by Sikhs on him when he was drowned.

H. M. Commissioner at Weihaiwei held an inquest on the 31st ult. into the loss by drowning of Mr. E. J. Soper, and decided that there were no suspicious circumstances.

THE DEPARTURE OF ARCHBISHOP GUIDI.

A scholar of St. Joseph's College contributes the following item of news:—On Saturday, Archbishop Guidi left for the Philippines. At one o'clock the boys and teachers of St. Joseph's College all arrayed in their gala-dresses left the school in ranks of three towards the French Mission house, the residence of His Excellency during his sojourn in Hongkong. From this place the boys accompanied the Archbishop and the clergy to Blake Pier, where three launches were waiting to take all to s.s. Rubi by which Mr. Guidi was to sail. While on the quay Master Ozorio read a sympathetic little address to His Excellency, wishing him bon voyage. Three cheers were called for the Pope and the other three for the Archbishop. The steam launch King Sing with a new flag of the College flying on the prow carried the Papal Delegate, the clergy, the Rev. Fr. Joshua and the choir of the College, two other launches the Wo-shun and the Wing-ku conveyed the Vinai and the Vinai Pastor bonus to a nice tune. When Mr. Guidi was seen safely on board, the launches left the steamer and started to cruise in the harbour waiting for the weighing of the anchor of s.s. Rubi. There was great excitement among the boys. At four o'clock the Rubi weighed anchor and started to sail for the Philippines. The launches which carried the boys and the teachers followed the steamer for a distance, boys shouting hurrahs and waving handkerchiefs all the time; His Excellency responded by also waving his handkerchief. But soon the launches were left far behind; with one more hurrah from the boys the launches turned back; the boys disembarked at Blake Pier, and set off towards their Alma Mater.

THE PLAGUE AND CHINESE LABOURERS.

In the House of Commons Mr. Lytton, replying to Sir W. Foster, said he received a telegram from the officer administering the government of Hongkong on 7th ult. stating that one case of bubonic plague had occurred in a lodge-house partly occupied by emigrants, the patient was a rejected emigrant, and that there had been no other case among the emigrants up to the present time. He (Mr. Lytton) believed this was the case. So long as the medical advisers of the local Government did not regard the conditions under which the Chinese labourers were introduced into the Transvaal as involving undue risk, and subject to such precautions as they thought necessary, he did not, as at present advised, propose to interfere. The length of the voyage from China was largely in excess of the period of incubation of the disease, and this very greatly reduced the risk of the introduction of plague.

Mr. Buchanan asked the Colonial Secretary whether, owing to the outbreak of plague at Hongkong, the charters for the steamers on the point of starting with Chinese indentured labourers for the Transvaal had been cancelled. Mr. Lytton: No, sir.

In reply to Mr. Weir Mr. Lytton said: I am informed by the officer administering the Government of Hongkong that intending emigrants on arrival there during the last fortnight have been accommodated in ordinary Chinese lodging-houses in Kowloon, of which a number have been hired and placed under special medical inspection. A permanent isolated depot is being built four miles from Kowloon, and isolated temporary accommodation will be ready in two days. All emigrants who satisfy the emigration officer and pass strict medical examination will be sent there pending shipment, those rejected being sent home.

THE R.M.L.I. UNIFORM.

A long time ago it was decided to cloth the Red Marines in a tunic with a cuff somewhat similar to that worn by the Guards. The issue of these uniforms has now begun, and with them the Marines are also getting the new pattern cap. The R.M.L.I. retained the Glengarry longer than any other infantry, excepting, of course, the Scottish regiments, and, similarly, the corps has been the last to receive the "Brodrick" cap. It seems that it would have pleased the men better had it not been issued at all. The famous globe and laurel will, of course, be retained as the badge of the corps. Nevertheless, the men do not altogether relish the idea of having their uniform remodelled to Guards' pattern.

HONGKONG METEOROLOGICAL SIGNALS.

A NEW CODE.

We have received from the Hongkong Observatory a new code of meteorological signals which comes into force at Hongkong on New Year's Day. They are the same as those at present in use at Shanghai, and will be hoisted on the mast beside the time-ball at Kowloon Point for the information of masters of vessels leaving the port. They do not necessarily imply that bad weather is expected. The signals are as follows:—

A cone point upwards indicates a typhoon to the North of the Colony.

A cone point upwards and drum below indicates a typhoon to the North-East of the Colony.

A drum indicates a typhoon to the East of the Colony.

A cone point downwards and drum below indicates a typhoon to the South-East of the Colony.

A cone point downwards indicates a typhoon to the South of the Colony.

A cone point downwards and ball below indicates a typhoon to the South-West of the Colony.

A ball indicates a typhoon to the West of the Colony.

A cone point upwards and ball below indicates a typhoon to the North-West of the Colony.

Red Signals indicate that the centre is believed to be more than 300 miles away from the Colony.

Black Signals indicate that the centre is believed to be less than 300 miles away from the Colony.

The above signals will, as heretofore, be hoisted only when typhoons exist in such position or are moving in such directions that information regarding them is considered to be of importance to the Colony or to shipping leaving the harbour.

NIGHT SIGNALS.

Two lanterns hoisted vertically indicate bad weather in the Colony and that the wind is expected to veer.

Two lanterns hoisted horizontally indicate bad weather in the Colony and that the wind is expected to back.

The signals are repeated on the flagstaff of the Godown Company at Kowloon, and also, by day only, at the Harbour Office and on H.M.'s Receiving Ship.

LOCAL STORM-WARNINGS.

The Colony itself is warned of approaching typhoons by means of the Typhoon Gun placed at the foot of the mast, which is fired whenever a strong gale of wind is expected to blow here.

NOTICE BOARDS.

Notice boards are placed at:— Joint Cable Companies' Office.
Ferry Company's Pier, Ice House Street.
Blake Pier.
Post Office.
Harbour Office.
Ferry Company's Pier, Kowloon.

WEATHER-FORECASTS AND STORM WARNINGS are exhibited on the above boards daily about 11 a.m., and also at other hours, day or night, whenever necessary. Information of importance is also issued by "Express."

THE CHINA COAST METEOROLOGICAL REGISTER is exhibited at the same places daily about noon. It contains observations made at Hongkong and at a number of stations in the Far East, together with Remarks, Weather-forecasts, and information regarding the existence and movements of typhoons based thereon.

SPECIAL INQUIRIES.

Masters of vessels or their agents may, whenever necessary, call at the Telegraph Company's Office in Connaught Road and send telegrams to the Observatory asking for special information without charge. Such inquiries may also be sent from the Police Station at Kowloon Point which is connected with the Observatory by telephone.

THE LAW OF STORMS.

Further information concerning the weather to be expected while signals are hoisted, and sailing directions, are given in "The Law of Storms in the Eastern Seas."

Acting Director.
